

Emergency First Response Responders in Action Report Form

Responders in Action.

When you use your skills as an Emergency Responder to care for an injured or ill person, we'd like to hear about it. The incident need not be dramatic, involve a life-threatening condition or necessarily have a favorable outcome. Sharing your story motivates and encourages others to use their skills and provide assistance in emergency situations. This information is also useful to monitor and gauge the effectiveness of Emergency First Response training and assist in future program development.
